

Seattle Security Traders Association 76th Conference

Sponsorship Opportunities

The Seattle Security Traders Association (SSTA) along with the Security Traders Association of Portland (STAP) proudly invite you to our 76th annual convention. This premiere event draws a significant number of members from the trading community locally and across the nation with a high attendance of buy side firms

This event could not be made possible without the great support that we receive from firms like yours. Don't miss this once in a year opportunity for your firm to be promoted in the Pacific Northwest. Further details at www.pnwsta.org

Sincerely,

Matt Steadman
President - Seattle Security Traders Association
